THEODOSIA MARCHANT

Theodosia Marchant
(Athens, 1978)

GR

"My paintings study life. Life is constructed by emotions of all shades; light, dark and the quiet shadow of their absence. Intricate or simple.

My subjects, the protagonists, express them, alive in their own moment. In my subjects, I aim to express a universal language that remains timeless and incorruptible.

BIO

Theodosia Marchant was born in Athens, Greece. She studied law in London and obtained a Bachelor's and Masters in Law. She practiced as a UK and EU registered attorney for several years before relocating in 2013 to Los Angeles.
